PARISH NEWS

MEET OUR NEW DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

Hello, my name is Holly Herber and I am honored to serve as the new Music Director at Mary Queen of Heaven Parish.

With nearly 20 years of experience as a director, I have enjoyed conducting, singing, and leading from the piano or organ bench. My academic background includes a degree in Church Music & Liturgy, along with Music Theory & Composition.

My paternal grandmother is a Chicago native, however I grew up in Indiana near Purdue University. Piano lessons started in the third grade, and both my brother and sister enjoyed the old upright grand piano in our home.

Living in a mixed denomination household brought vibrancy to theology and music, and enriched my faith experience. At our Catholic Parish I was drawn to the German pipe organ and enjoyed singing in the Schola Cantorum. I additionally participated in the praise band where my mother attended church.

Organ lessons started in college, and outside of music studies I completed a Minor in Philosophy.

After a decade of serving as a full time director in Indianapolis, I moved to Texas to freelance as a musician. This brought wonderful experiences of various music genres and ensembles, including a community orchestra. One highlight was seeing the dedication of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Conroe TX.

Living in Illinois for the past three years has brought me closer to my Indiana family, there is even the option of commuting by train. This includes visits to my sister who lives near South Bend, IN and is a Franciscan religious sister, her name is Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska.

In my free time I enjoy outdoor activities, concerts, reading, and visiting the city to connect with my partner Jarrett and his friends and family.

Here at Mary Queen of Heaven Parish I look forward to starting a handbell choir, and offering vocal workshops, which will be available to anyone interested.

The Mary Queen of Heaven Choir recently enjoyed their end of year BBQ where this photo was taken.
