A MESSAGE FROM FATHER SŁAWEK

Praise be Jesus Christ... Now and Forever!

As we enter this holy season of Advent, the Church invites us once again to lift our eyes and hearts toward the coming of our Savior. Advent is a time of longing, hope, and expectation—a season when we prepare to welcome Christ not only at Christmas, but also into every part of our daily lives. In these four weeks we are called to slow down, reflect, and make room for the Lord who desires to dwell with us.

The First Sunday of Advent marks the beginning of a new liturgical year. This is a fresh spiritual beginning for all of us, a chance to renew our commitment to prayer, to the sacraments, and to intentional discipleship. The Gospel this weekend urges us to "be awake" and attentive, for the Lord comes at a time we do not expect. Advent, therefore, is not simply about waiting—it is about active readiness and joyful preparation.

One of the beautiful traditions of Advent is the lighting of the Advent wreath. Each candle represents a growing light in the darkness as we draw nearer to the birth of Christ, the Light of the World. Let us allow this symbol to inspire us to become bearers of Christ's light in our homes, workplaces, and parish community. With each candle we light, may our hearts grow in trust, peace, and hope.

Advent also invites us to look honestly at our lives and ask where Christ is calling us to deeper conversion. Perhaps He is calling us to forgive someone, to return to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, to renew our family prayer, or to rekindle charity toward those in need. Let us welcome this invitation with open hearts. God never tires of drawing us closer to Himself.

This Advent, I encourage each of us to make time for quiet prayer, even if only for a few minutes a day. In silence, the Lord speaks tenderly to our hearts and reminds us of His love. Whether it is before the Blessed Sacrament, at home with the Scriptures, or during a walk outside, let us be intentional about creating space for God's voice. The more we listen, the more we will recognize His presence throughout our days.

Beginning this First Sunday of Advent, we are also introducing a new devotional option during the distribution of Holy Communion. For those who desire to receive Our Lord kneeling, kneelers will be placed in front of the altar. Those who prefer to receive standing are most welcome to do so, as always. This addition is offered to deepen reverence and prayer for anyone who finds kneeling a meaningful way to express devotion to the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

As we begin this sacred season, may the Lord bless our parish family with renewed faith, hope, and love. Let us walk together with confidence, trusting that Christ is near and that He is guiding us every step of the way. May this Advent be a time of grace, reflection, and joyful anticipation as we prepare our hearts for the coming of Emmanuel—God with us.

Have a blessed week.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Sławek

FAITH FORMATION NEWS - MARY GLAUDELL, DIRECTOR

*"I rejoiced because they said to me,
"We will go up to the house of the LORD." (Psalm 122:1)*

We go to the house of the Lord in joy. Share your joy this Advent with the families at Marillac House and participate in our annual Mary Queen of Heaven toy drive.

Marillac House of Chicago is in need of new, unwrapped toys for their families this Christmas. Please send your donation for Marillac House with your child to class or drop it off in the designated bin in Mary's Gathering Space by Thursday, December 11th. Thank you in advance for your generosity as we show our joy in the Lord and love for one another.

PARISH MARIAN CONSECRATION – WEEK 4

MARIAN CONSECRATION means entrusting yourself totally to Mary as your Mother.

Once consecrated she will take all of your thoughts, words, and actions and present them to her most beloved Son with the sweetest love. Your life will never be the same.

Week 4 begins Nov. 30th - this week read the Week 4 lesson

Links to each lesson file are on the MQH Website, within the Calendar & Events page, under Marian Consecration or please come to the Parish Office to secure a printed lesson.*

~All four readings can be read anytime before December 7th ~

Readings are not required for children. Parents can simply tell their children about Mary in whatever way fits their family best.*

Upon completion of the 4 weekly Readings a Consecration Ritual will be held on December 7th - at 10AM Mass - one day before the Feast of the Immaculate Conception

Individual Confession should occur either 20 days before or after December 7th - this reflects a desire to humble oneself and live a new, changed life. *Children under 7 do not need to go to confession.

If participating, please sign up (through November 29th) using the SignUp Genius link also on the MQH Website titled: "Participant SignUp for Parish Marian Consecration".

Please visit <https://militiaoftheimmaculata.com/> for more information

Questions? Please email; parishoffice@maryqueen.org

NOTES OF THANKS

Thank you MQH ~ It has been quite a ride the last 25 years! Thank you to the entire Parish who helped to mold me and challenge me to be good servant. The reception following the 10:00 a.m. Mass last Sunday was an awesome example of the vitality of Mary Queen. I am beyond grateful! May the Lord's blessings continue to shine on this parish as you continue to bring forth His kingdom here on earth!

*Love, prayers and hugs,
Mimi Nolan*

A heartfelt "Thank You" to all of you for your warm and loving wishes on my "retirement" from the Bereavement Ministry! I was greatly moved to receive such wonderful recognition. It has been my honor and privilege to journey with so many of you through the loss of your loved ones. Please know that I am not going anywhere—I will remain a Mary Queen of Heaven parishioner for life! I look forward to continuing my ministry to the parish from the altar, through my involvement with CRHP, and ongoing Social Justice ministries.

*God Bless You All!
Mary Ann Reed*
